WELCOME TO THE FORECAST!

There's a whirlwind of talent headed your way! Expect scattered showers of gravity-defying aerals and a high-altitude front of breathtaking spins. Join us as we weather the storm from the air, soaring through the eye of the storm to show you that the view is always better from above

Friends and family are invited to join our audience and Weather the Skies!

ACT 1: THE MORNING GLOW

TRY EVERYTHING Sunday Circus Explorers

PERFORMERS: Ella D, Fen S, Nova S, Vela S, Vivian-Rose F

CHOREOGRAPHER: Saturn K

Good morning, circus fans! We're starting our forecast with 100% chance of courage and some high-flying leaps of faith. Our youngest aerialists are ready to 'Try Everything' as they wake up the rigging and welcome the very first rays of sun.

WE DON'T TALK ABOUT BRUNO Saturday Circus Explorers

PERFORMERS: Amaya P, Clara B, Madelyn S, Olivia B

CHOREOGRAPHER: Kea R

A little shadow is drifting across our sunny morning, but don't let it dampen the mood. These flyers are weaving through the hammocks like secrets in the wind. Just remember—we don't talk about the forecast until the music starts!

SUNSHINE Saturday Mini Aerials

PERFORMERS: Adelia K, Anna H, Keelin C, Lena B, Sophie S, Zara S

CHOREOGRAPHER: Kea R

The morning fog has cleared, and the temperature is rising! It's time to soak up the rays and enjoy the bright, golden energy of a perfect day. Watch as our performers capture that midday heat with radiant smiles and high-energy drops.

CRAZY FROG Thursday Mini Aerials

PERFORMERS: Arrietty L-L, Gemma-Rae S, Mathéa B, Maxwell D-B, Nikita D R,

CHOREOGRAPHER: Kea R

Can you feel that? There's a bit of static in the air and a whole lot of bounce in the atmosphere. This high-pressure system is moving in fast, bringing a zany, electric energy to the hoops that is absolutely 'crazy'!

WILDEST DREAMS Sunday Mini Aerials

PERFORMERS: Abby C, Elkanah N, Isabella E, Mackenzie K-C, Mairin G, Scarlett S

CHOREOGRAPHER: Kea R

As the afternoon matures, a soft, dreamlike wind begins to rustle through the silks. This isn't just a breeze; it's the stuff that sky-high daydreams are made of. Let yourself drift away as our dancers float through a breathtaking twilight haze.

ACT 2: RISING BAROMETER

BETTER WHEN I'M DANCING

Thursday Youth Aerials 1

PERFORMERS: Lexi V, Emma R, Kaylie D, Kenleigh C, Pippa S, Sloane B, Zoey C

CHOREOGRAPHER: Kea R

The weather is shifting, but the vibe is better than ever when we're off the ground! These aerialists are bringing a bright, rhythmic energy to the rigging that could clear even the gloomiest sky. It's impossible to feel the pressure when you're dancing mid-air!

WIDE AWAKE

Competitive Performance Team

PERFORMER: Bridget M

Sometimes a change in the weather is exactly what you need to see things clearly. This transition is all about finding your grip and waking up to the power within the apparatus. The clouds are parting, and we are officially seeing the world from a brand new height.

BEAUTIFUL THINGS

Competitive Performance Team

PERFORMER: Isla B

There is a specific kind of light right before the sun dips—the kind that makes you want to hold onto every moment. This piece is a tribute to the beautiful things we protect, even when the wind starts to pick up. Let's soak in the warmth before the clouds turn heavy.

A SKY FULL OF STARS

Wednesday Youth Aerials 1

PERFORMERS: Aria A, Elisapea K, Katie F, Madison S, Olivia T, Skye Y, Veronica F

CHOREOGRAPHER: Emma C

The sun has set, but the sky is far from dark tonight. This next performance lights up the rigging with a celestial energy that sparkles from every angle. Prepare to be dazzled by a galaxy of talent moving across the atmosphere.

MY OWN WAY

Monday Youth Aerials 2

PERFORMERS: Alida P, Isabella R, Mia D, Vera S

CHOREOGRAPHER: Tina S

When a storm is brewing, most people head for cover—but not this crew. They're forging their own path through the air, undeterred by shifting winds or rising pressure. Watch them climb and spin through the atmosphere on their own terms.

LEVITATING

Wednesday Youth Aerials 2

PERFORMERS: Ava H, Bridget M, Ellie P, Isla B, Keira M, Megan S, Mélanie C

CHOREOGRAPHER: Tina S

We have an official update from the weather desk: gravity has been temporarily suspended! These performers are floating through the air with a cosmic energy that feels like a trip to the stars. It's time to get a little 'lightheaded' as we levitate!

CLOUDY DAY

Saturday Youth Aerials 1

PERFORMERS: Evie B, Camilla T, Ellerie A, Luna S, Mira E, Skye Y, Pragya S

CHOREOGRAPHER: Anthe M

Even when the sky turns gray, we know how to find the silver lining in the silks. This routine is here to show us that a few clouds can't stop the rhythm of the climb. It's all about staying bright, even when the forecast looks a little hazy.

FIREWORK

Monday Youth Aerials 1

PERFORMERS: Allie S, Avery H, Isla Z, Margo D, Sauren M-K, Skylar M, Teagan G, Tristan M-K

CHOREOGRAPHER: Tina S

We're ending our second act with a high-voltage display of brilliance! Before the storm officially breaks, we're lighting up the atmosphere with a burst of color and power. Get ready for a performance that's truly explosive!

ACT 3: EVENING STORM

ELDEST DAUGHTER

Competitive Performance Team

PERFORMER: Josephine L

As the first heavy drops fall, we look to the quiet strength at the core of the storm. This performance explores the resilience it takes to hold the high ground and protect the shelter of the home while the wind howls outside.

FIRE FOR YOU

Competitive Performance Team

PERFORMER: Eva Leah S

The sky has turned a deep violet, and the silent flicker of heat lightning is dancing across the horizon. This routine brings a smoldering, electric energy to the rigging. Watch the sparks fly in this moody, atmospheric climb.

ROLLING IN THE DEEP
Monday Teen Aerials 1

PERFORMERS: Annalyn J, Ariana M, Avery B, Corbin L, Thalia J, Zoe W

CHOREOGRAPHER: Tina S

The clouds have finally burst, and the pressure has dropped as the rain comes down in a powerful deluge. We are diving deep into the rhythm of the storm surge, moving through the air with a powerful performance that flows like a force of nature.

FROZEN FLAME
Fabric 3

PERFORMERS: Saturn K, Emily J, Josephine L

CHOREOGRAPHER: Anthe M

The rain has turned to ice, and a shimmering frost is settling over the stage. This trio navigates the beautiful, dangerous landscape of a frozen storm, balancing heat and ice in the air. Watch as they weave through a crystalline winter sky.

TAKE YOU TO HELL
Competitive Performance Team

PERFORMER: Vera K

The low-pressure system has reached its peak, and the thunder is shaking the very rigging we hang from. Our performers are embracing the darkness and the drama of the night with a performance as bold as a lightning strike.

THUNDERSTRUCK
Wednesday Teen Aerials 2

PERFORMERS: Alaz K, Eva Leah S, Isabelle B, Kenzie M, Kiyana K, Sophie B

CHOREOGRAPHER: Tina S

Lightning strikes twice tonight! Channeling the raw, vibrating energy of a massive electrical discharge, this routine brings high-voltage power to the air. Brace yourselves for a sky-high shock to the system!

FREE
Competitive Performance Team

PERFORMER: Emily J

Finally, the wind has died down and the heavy atmosphere has lifted. This routine represents that breathtaking moment of release when the clouds finally break and you realize you are truly free. The sky is open, and the sun is ready to return.

OPALITE
Thursday Teen Aerials 2

PERFORMERS: Annalyn J, Emily S, Josephine L, Vera K

CHOREOGRAPHER: Tina S

As the sun hits the mist, a shimmering spectrum of color erupts across the stage. This iridescent group captures the brilliant rainbow that only appears after the hardest rain, bringing light and color back to the rigging.

SUPERMASSIVE BLACK HOLE
Bar 3

PERFORMERS: Eva Leah S, Saturn K

CHOREOGRAPHER: Liz S

Beyond the clouds lies the infinite mystery of the dark night sky. We're moving past the storm and into the gravitational pull of the stars for a final, gravity-defying cosmic shift into the deep atmosphere.

KOKOMO
Family Aerials

PERFORMERS: Anna P, Evalyna P, Brittany W, Madeleine W, Chantal G, Kaylie D, Sarah P, Madeliene P-L

CHOREOGRAPHER: Kea R

The storm is a distant memory, and we've landed in a tropical paradise where the sun always shines. It's time to relax, let the island breeze carry us through the hoops, and celebrate the end of our journey. Welcome to paradise!

FINALE

BRIGHTER THAN THE SUN
Final Bow

PERFORMERS: All performers are invited to return to the stage for a final bow!

And that is our forecast! From the first light of sunrise to the clearing of the evening storm, these aerialists have weathered it all with grace and strength. Please join me in welcoming all our performers back to the stage for one final celebration of the sun! Please give a huge round of applause to all our Star Performers as they take their well-deserved bows, because they were brighter than the sun!
